

Week of October 10, 2016... Alert on Immigration

What's Happening?

More than 275,000 people face intensified daily bombardment in eastern Aleppo. As many as 100,000 of the people trapped in the rebel controlled area are children. They are facing a humanitarian catastrophe. The near-continuous siege since mid-July has been compared to infamous massacres in Srebrenica and Rwanda.”

“The indiscriminate brutality witnessed in Aleppo must end. The people of Aleppo need an immediate ceasefire,” said Caritas Internationalis Secretary-General Michel Roy. Health is the priority. Hospitals and clinics are in critical need of assistance. They are struggling to cope with insufficient supplies, staff or space to treat the injured. There is also an acute lack of food in the besieged area. From ZENIT

Action One: Prayer

Oh God of Creation, as citizens of a nation possessing and exerting tremendous power and influence -- both in the human community, and on the planet You so lovingly created -- help us to remember that our individual votes have tremendous consequences.

Help us to remember that we are casting our vote not only for ourselves, but for the billions of other beings in the world whose lives will be directly affected by our nation's election results. May we be keenly mindful that the decisions made by the leaders we elect will affect so many..... Adapted from Pax Christi USA
